

3. ENCLOSURE - CORN LAW

Music: Gary Daverne
 Words: Ruth Hamilton

Piano

$\text{♩} = 128$

And.

Narrator: Many people lost their land and homes because of the Enclosure. The Corn Bill, greatly increased the price of bread.

rit.

5

Women: mp En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law.

Solo Woman: f I sold my son to

Men:

And.

8

a chim - ney sweep. We were starv - ing. Solo Man:

En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law.

11

Wo - man, your son is dead. He

En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law. En - clos - ure, Corn Law.

14

fell.

En - clos - ure, Corn Law.

f

* rit.

17

f Eight - een Six - teen. p Eight - een Six - teen. cresc. Eight - een Six - teen, Eight - een Six - teen,

Narrator: 1816. It has rained. 1816. The crops have failed.

20

Eight - een Six - teen, Eight - een Six - teen, Eight - een Six - teen, Eight - een Six - teen,

22

With desperation $\text{♩} = 60$

f Eight - teen Six - teen. p teen.

Solo Woman: I can not a-ford to buy bread for my fam-i-ly.

26 A little faster ♩ = 80

Solo Woman:
(Slow and Plaintive)

My hus - band is one of three hun - dred thous - and

Eigh - teen Six - teen. teen

mf

A little faster ♩ = 80

mf

29

men, dis - missed from the force with - out a pen - sion.

There is no work.

ff

ff

8va