

Excerpts from FLOATING ISLAND
 Music by Rosemary and Gary Daverne. Words by Phil Mark

A STRANGE DREAM

Pop Feel ♩ = 132

1. This is the tale from a far dis-tant land, set in the times long be-fore the white man.
 Spi - rits, wise men, age old themes and a young girl's dream, a ver - y strange dream. Most sig - ni - fi - cant, tru - ly dif - fer - ent, quite a ma - gic - al dream. Fan - tas - ma - go - ri - cal, awe - some eu - pho - ri - cal. Are dreams all that they seem.

ANCIENT SPIRITS

Gospel Style ♩ = 120

An - cient Spi - rits of your tribe, we see all things far and wide.
 On the land and in the sky, so much more than meets the eye.

PUSHING SHOIVING

With Energy ♩ = 132

Push - ing, shov - ing, to get through, the tribe they came all run - ning too.
 Ro - na led them off with glee, the floa - ting is - land they must see.