

ACT II - Scene II JANE'S ENTRANCE

Jane enters and All exit except for Hobbs.

Rhythmically ♩ = 126

mf

4

7

H. Jane!

HOBBS (Excitedly)

10

J. John! H. Wel - come Mis - ses Hobbs. J. Thank you kind Sir

13

H. Here! Let me take your hand.

16

I have some news

Molto Rit.

19 More Gentle ♩ = 104

There is an old house built of rush - es and reeds

mf

22

Chief Patuone, he will lend this to us. This will be our home until the Mission is built.

26

J. Such a chal - lenge a - waits us, Through 29

God's word we will work for peace. Learn - ing, teach - ing and heal - ing. God's work has brought us here.

32

Enter Patuone and his warriors

PATUONE'S 2nd. ENTRANCE

36

HOBBS: Chief Pat - u o - ne! PATUONE: Hae - re - mai, John Hobbs. It is $\text{♩} = 120$

Sticks

Stamp foot/slap thighs

mf

39

good to see you. H. Gree - tings Chief Pat - u - o - ne. Your

mf

41

wel - come warms our hearts P. Hae - re - mai, hae - re - mai, Te Rang - a - ti - ta

mf

43

M - rs. Hobbs. J. Chief Pat - u - o - ne you are 45

ve - ry kind. P. Aah! He When - u - a. You want to talk a - bout some land! H. Your tribe lives in 49

47

peace What of the oth - er tribes who are at 51

war? P. War - ri - ors will al - ways be war - ri - ors and run a - bout and

54

fight. They can not be civ - il - ised. We will be glad to share our land with you. As the Pa - ke - ha wish - es. Let him trade.

57

60

I have a bro - ther, Tam - a - ti Waa - ka Ne - ne, an in - flu - en - cial chief.

63

He lives near the mis - sion site.

66

He will al - so pro - tect you. H. Thank you Pat - u -

69

o - ne. Thank you my friend.

72

Ka Pai. Ve - ry good. Now I must 75

go. The great chief Hong - i is 78

dead. You should know that as he lay there dy - ing, he told his war - ri - ors not to av - enge his death.

82

84

He died murmur-ing, "Be-cou-rage-ous and be kind to the pray-ing

88

for - eign - ers" His words will bring peace.

91

I hope so. Now I must go my men will 94

help you. God be with you on your jour - ney

97

Patuane and his men exit chanting. **Optional or straight on*

Hi! Ri-teWha-kari - te. Hi! Ri - te Wha - ka ri - te.

f

101

Hi! Ri - te Wha - ka ri - te. Hi! Ri - te Wha - ka ri - te.